Object: 3rd Grand Prize Winner Notification

Your status has been verified and confirmed: you are the 3rd GRAND PRIZE WINNER for the National Geographic Sweepstake. Your total winnings are $100,000. You have therefore been approved for the payment of $100,000 USD (One hundred thousand dollars) with a certified cashier's check with the reference number: # PC-6020032.

CONGRATULATIONS!

We advise you to keep your reference number confidential until your claim has been properly processed and your winnings paid to you, as this is part of our security protocol to avoid any double claims or identity theft. All prize monies must be claimed no later than March 31st, 2009. After this date, any unclaimed monies will be deemed null and void. To avoid any unnecessary delays, remember to quote your reference number with any correspondence with our office. Note that part of our job is to inform you of your winnings and educate you on how to claim them.

Your clearance/processing fee is calculated based on the winnings and is required by federal and international law. These fees will be entirely covered by National Geographic Corporate Claims Services. You will find your sponsors check enclosed for the amount of $3,085.00 (which covers insurance, handling, duty and taxes fees). According to federal and international law, it is strictly forbidden to use these monies for any other reason than paying your clearing/processing fees. Once these fees are paid for, you will receive your winnings by certified cashier's check within 24 hours. A FedEx Envelope is ready for release to be delivered to your home address.

As part of our security protocol, your file has been assigned to an international claim office. PLEASE CALL US AS SOON AS YOU RECEIVE THIS LETTER SO WE CAN RELEASE YOUR WINNINGS AND VALIDATE THIS CHECK.

Congratulations,
