

Farm Safety

- Where: Langley Bell 4-H Camp—located W Nine Mile Rd
When: Saturday, May 2, 2009 Time: 12:00-4:30
(JOIN US FOR LUNCH@12:00 free)
What: Learn what dangers exist, how to prevent injuries, and ways to educate others.
Cost: FREE!! Travel (gas card) incentives are available for those who register.
Registration: Call Tess Estes 256-3804 or e-mail 4hgisfl@bellsouth.net

Attendance Incentives:

- Travel reimbursement based on distance driven (must register for this incentive)
- Educational farm safety and health resources to use when presenting in your community
- Door prizes
- Fun learning activities for youth
- Make connections with other farmers in your area
- Lunch will be served
- Mock Teen CERT disaster drill
- Farm safety equipment will be given to farmers
- Bring the kids ---Jump House ----Hands on activities

Each year, farm-related tragedies take place within your community. Children and youth are being injured and dying as a result of hazards within the rural environments where they live, work, and play.

NORTHVIEW 4-H CLUB

Our club's mission is to save lives and prevent injuries in Escambia and Santa Rosa County

“The Foundation for the Gator Nation” an Equal Opportunity Institution.

This event is possible because of a grant from the Florida State 4-H Foundation